Event Name: Family Weekend: Library and Student Success District Tours

Date: Friday, October 8, 2021

Start Time: 10:00am

End Time: 04:00pm

Description:

During the University of Arizona’s Family Weekend (October 8-10), we’re offering a free 45-minute guided tour of the Student Success District [link to: https://uaatwork.arizona.edu/lqp/5-things-know-about-student-success-district], which connects the renovated Main and Albert B. Weaver Science-Engineering Libraries, the new Barretti Academic Success Center, and the Bear Down Gymnasium to improve the student experience. Visit the renovated and new buildings to learn about the District’s centralized services, resources, and programs that support the University’s highest priority: student success. For questions or requests regarding disability-related accommodations, contact Maggie Verebelyi verebelyim@arizona.edu.

We strongly recommend that guests wear face coverings (link https://covid19.arizona.edu/face-coverings) when attending this event. Space is limited.

Registration required for both tours on Fri, Oct 8th.

Event Name: Tucson Meet Yourself

Date: Friday, October 8, 2021

Start Time: 11:00am

End Time: 09:00pm

Description:

The festival has been held annually in Downtown Tucson, Arizona since 1974. It was founded by University of Arizona folklorist and anthropologist Dr. James “Big Jim” Griffith, who in 2011 was honored by the National Endowment for the Arts with a prestigious recognition as a “National Heritage” treasure.
TMY is the signature annual event of the Southwest Folklife Alliance (SFA), an affiliate non-profit organization of the University of Arizona, housed within the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences, and the designated Folk Arts Partner of the Arizona Commission on the Arts with the support of the National Endowment of the Arts. SFA’s mission is to build more equitable and vibrant communities by celebrating the everyday expressions of culture, heritage and diversity in the Greater Southwest. Its work helps support, honor, and promote the traditional arts and heritage practices of the region and that compliment the festival year-round.

TMY is building a community that respects traditions, culture, diversity and honors the land and environment (“sense of place”) unique to the desert borderlands. We have several ongoing partnerships with other organizations in our region dedicated to fostering compassion, integrity, and stewardship of the land and our Southwestern cultural ways. TMY has had a long history of partnership and shared goals with the University of Arizona.

Event Name: Arizona Repertory Theatre- Into The Woods

Date: Sunday, October 10, 2021
Start Time: 01:30pm
End Time: 03:30pm

Description:

Arizona Repertory Theatre (ART) serves as the public laboratory and showcase for the School’s professional training programs. Students function as young professionals in a setting where the rules and discipline of the contemporary theatre are observed. Operating rules are modeled after those of the Actors’ Equity Association, the union of professional actors and stage managers in the United States. The repertoire is selected primarily from classical and musical works, and is designed to serve as the integral extension of the student’s classroom study and studio training. For more information about the Into The Woods performance, please click below.
